

TARGETED WAGE SUBSIDY

Application Time Frame
Allow a Maximum of six (6) weeks before the anticipated start date to process applications. The following documents are required: Completed and signed original ISET application, Band Council Resolution (BCR) or board motion where applicable, and Job title(s) and job description(s) for participant(s). ISET is not responsible for expenditures before a signed contract is in place.
Eligible Participants
Eligibility will be confirmed to the right to funding for First Nations status, non-status individuals who are encountering barriers to securing and/or maintaining employment, and • Individuals must reside within the ISET catchment area • Are unemployed or under-employed. See glossary of terms for under-employed. • All individuals applying for the following programs must obtain a program referral from an ISET employment counsellor to be considered: Targeted Wage Subsidy Program, Summer Student Program, and Direct Purchase Program. • The client referral will determine eligibility for funding and that training aligns with the client's career goals/interests. • Participant may have marketable skills but lack work experience in an area in which the work experience and/or training will occur.
Ineligible Participants
• Individuals who have already participated in a TWS are ineligible and will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. • An exception is a guarantee of employment at the end of the contract.
Objectives
• To provide an employment opportunity to gain meaningful work experience for an unemployed eligible participant who requires assistance to overcome existing or anticipated labour market barriers. This opportunity may lead to continued employment with the sponsor. TWS funds are not meant to create a funding dependency. Core staff or normal program activities can only be supported once. • To provide a wage subsidy, employment-related costs, and related training dollars for an unemployed eligible participant • Sponsors will offer likely hood of long-term employment or for the participant to obtain sustainable employment
Eligible Employers (Must be legal entities, have liability insurance, WCB, and Revenue accounts)
• Bands and Tribal Councils • Non-profit organizations: First Nations and non-First Nations • For-profit businesses: First Nations and non-First Nations businesses (must have been operational for a period of one year or more). Includes Band owned entities that are for profit.
Activities
• Projects should provide skills to assist the eligible participant in removing employment barriers • Activities should prepare eligible participants for gainful employment with the sponsor • Should be full-time or a minimum of 30 hours per week • On-the-job and off-the-job training are encouraged
Duration
• Minimum of 6 weeks to a maximum of 27 weeks or 945 hours
Eligible Costs
• Not-for-profit employers: Participant wages are funded at 100% of minimum wage. • For-Profit Employers: Contribution to participant wages will be capped at 50% of minimum wage. • Mandatory Employment Related Costs (MERCs): Canada Pension Plan (CPP), Employment Insurance (EI), Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) rate, and holiday pay. To be based on actual costs. • Training and Personal Protection Equipment costs (includes training costs, textbooks, instructional material up to a maximum of $500); all training must be certified. A copy of the certificate must be provided at the end of training. • Special costs are negotiable for participants with disabilities. Please see ISET eligible expenditure guidelines. • It is expected that sponsors will provide top-up wages and their portion of the • (MERCs) as part of the sponsor contribution.
Approval Process
• An Outreach Worker will review the proposal content, pose assessment questions to the sponsor, and negotiate the proposed contract amount. • The Program Manager will review all applications to ensure they are complete. • A proposal Review committee will review completed applications for final approval.
All program funding requests are subject to availability of funds